

Since its founding in 1995, the Furman Center for Real Estate and Urban Policy has become a leading academic research center dedicated to providing objective academic and empirical research on the legal and public policy issues involving land use, real estate, housing and urban affairs in the United States, with a particular focus on New York City. The Center is dedicated to the following three missions:

- Providing objective academic and empirical research on the legal and public policy issues involving land use, real estate, housing and urban affairs in the United States, with a particular focus on New York City;
- Promoting frank and productive discussions among elected and appointed officials, leaders of the real estate industry, leaders of non-profit housing and community development organizations, scholars, faculty, and students about critical issues in land use, real estate and urban policy;
- Presenting essential data and analysis about New York City's housing and neighborhoods to all those involved in land use, real estate development, community economic development, housing, urban economics, and urban policy. The Furman Center has created several innovative tools that help disseminate information on New York City's housing and neighborhoods to the public.

In February 2010, the Furman Center launched a new Institute for Affordable Housing Policy to improve the effectiveness of affordable housing policies and programs. The Institute is neither partisan nor ideologically predictable. The Institute harnesses the incredible talent of the New York University community and experts at the Furman Center by providing housing practitioners and policymakers with information about what's working and what isn't, and about promising new ideas and innovative practices.

The Furman Center is a joint research center of the New York University School of Law and the New York University Robert F. Wagner Graduate School of Public Service. The Center is named in honor of NYU Law alumnus Jay Furman, class of '71, who is a member of both the NYU School of Law Foundation Board of Trustees and the NYU Board of Trustees. Mr. Furman, an international real estate investor and developer, provided generous financial support to endow the Center, and is a constant source of support.

Vicki Been, the Boxer Family Professor of Law, is the Center's faculty director. Ingrid Gould Ellen, Professor of Public Policy and Urban Planning, is the faculty co-director. Sarah Gerecke, Adjunct Assistant Professor of Planning, is the executive director. The Center regularly collaborates with faculty from the Law School, the Wagner School, and NYU's Faculty of Arts and Sciences.
